Fall 2003

From The President

Yash V. Dalal, LC '92

As the new President of the Livingston Alumni Association, it is my sincere pleasure and honor to represent all of you. Some of my goals for this year are to increase membership, increase involvement of members, revise the elections process, improve communications with members, and expand our Reunion activities.

The LAA exists to serve the interests and needs of Livingston alumni, and I am pleased to report that the LAA is growing stronger with more participation from our alumni at events and on the Executive Council. For those who may be new to the LAA, the Executive Council is the governing body of the LAA, which organizes and sponsors a multitude of events and programs for LAA members, such as cultural events, networking opportunities, social outings and sports functions.

For example, earlier this year, members of the LAA along with family and friends cheered the Rutgers Men's Basketball team as they handily beat nationally-ranked Notre Dame! We also saw a rousing rendition of the "Will Rogers Follies" presented by the multi-talented students of the Livingston Theater Company. We organized a networking event for the graduating seniors of the Class of 2003 who were able to meet and discuss career and job opportunities with established alumni in a variety of fields, including publishing, medicine, finance, law, technology, education and others. Additionally, the LAA, in conjunction with the Dean's Office, successfully petitioned the Rutgers Foundation to create a donation line-item for the Livingston Student Center Expansion (See article on page 6).

Homecoming '03

Every May students ascend from their role of students to that of graduates. Come this October another tradition will continue, homecoming. The students that became graduates are now alumni and homecoming is our annual tradition of welcoming back new and old alumni. Though homecoming is an annual tradition, traditions can change from time to time. The Livingston Alumni Association's (LAA) homecoming booth will be new and exciting this year. In addition to having great fun, games, and information we are looking to show you what Livingston students and organizations are excelling at now. This is an opportunity to get together with your college friends and reminisce about fun times at Rutgers. On October 18th, before the football game, come by the LAA booth and have another good time at Rutgers.

As I stated, one of my major goals as President is to increase the involvement of Livingston alumni in the LAA. I have personally found my involvement in the LAA to be extremely fulfilling and worthwhile. We have re-established several working committees to better serve your interests. All interested alumni are encouraged to join a committee and volunteer some of their time and know-how on these committees:

- Elections and Nominations
- Membership
- Programming & Events
- Public Relations
- Reunion & Class
- Young Alumni

Additionally, within the next couple of years, we hope to open Executive Council elections to the entire membership. Currently, officers and Council members are elected by LAA members who attend the Annual meeting in-person. We are in the process of reviewing and revising our Constitution and By-Laws to allow for these and other changes.

I also want to insure that LAA members take full advantage of the benefits and perks of membership. You are entitled to discounts at Rutgers sporting events, the Rutgers bookstore and local restaurants, as well as membership in the Rutgers Club, and much more. Check the LAA website for a complete list of member benefits, http://livingston.rutgers.edu/alumni/. We will also be updating and improving our website and e-mail correspondence to facilitate communication.

The LAA is also proud to have the full support of the administration of Livingston College and Rutgers University. Our new President, Dr. Richard McCormick has already pledged his support to the alumni. In turn, it is our responsibility to help him achieve his goal of making Rutgers a more nationally-recognized and outstanding academic and research institution.

Finally, I would like to acknowledge Bill Bauer, Past President of the LAA, for his hard work and dedication to the LAA. We are so pleased that Bill has chosen to stay active on the Executive Council and serve as one of the Livingston College representatives to the Alumni Federation.

Watch your e-mail and check the website for more details on upcoming programs and ways you can contribute your time or particular expertise to the LAA! We are always looking for fresh ideas and new volunteers. Please feel free to send me an e-mail with your suggestions and questions. I can be reached at LaaEmail@alumni.rutgers.edu. I look forward to serving you. Our next major event is Homecoming on Saturday, October 18, 2003. I hope to see you there!

Livingston Wins First Place for Orientation Theme

For the second year in a row, Livingston College has won first place for Best Use of Thematic programming for its Summer 2002 Orientation/Welcome Week theme of "Grow Where You're Planted: Livingston College:- A Community With Roots". The award, earned in the Small School Category, was presented at the National Orientation Directors Association Conference held in Toronto in early November 2002. The winning theme was developed by Dean Robin Diamond. Jay Garrett LC '03 developed the web site. Livingston's Orientation program consists of two-day, small group Summer Orientation sessions and the Welcome Week Program at the beginning of the fall semester.

Fund Raising Update

July 1, 2003 marked the beginning of a new fiscal year at Rutgers University, and within the next couple of days alumni will receive a letter from the campaign chairman, Jim Cullen, announcing that this year will be the final year for the Rutgers University Capital Campaign. In this final campaign year Livingston College will continue to work towards raising funds for the college's unmet needs. Activities have been planned to aggressively move towards meeting the college's $2 million campaign goal.

On Friday, December 5th at the Zimmerli Museum there will be a fund raising dinner that will pay tribute to the 10th year anniversary of Dr. Arnold G. Hyndman, as dean of Livingston College. Plans for the fundraiser include entertainment by Livingston alumnus, Ralph Peterson LC '84, and the former chair for the Department of Jazz, Dr. Laurence Ridley. The purpose of the event will be to raise funds for endowed scholarships in leadership education, and to honor Dr. Hyndman's 10 years of leadership at Livingston. We are very proud to announce that so far, a Livingston alumnus has donated a gift of $250,000 towards this effort.

If you have not made your personal gift to support your alma mater, there is still time! There are several ways your gift can be made; you can go on-line to the Livingston College web site at http://livingston.rutgers.edu or you can send a check made payable to the Rutgers Foundation to the address listed below. Please indicate somewhere on the check or by attaching a note, that you would like you gift to go to Livingston College, and if your desire, identify what area at Livingston College you would like your gift to support. Send your check to:

Carolyn Dennis-Phillips
Livingston College Director of Development
Rutgers Foundation
18 Bishop Place – 2nd Floor
New Brunswick, NJ 08901

Finally, you can direct any questions you may have regarding the December 5th tribute fundraiser dinner to Carolyn Dennis-Phillips at (732) 932-4392. Thank you in advance for your generosity and we look forward to hearing from you.

Reunion 2·0·0·3

Reunion Recap

Livingston College Class Reunions of the 3' and 8's (73, 78, 83, 88, 93, 98) were held this spring in partnership with the Rutgers Alumni Associations' Reunion Weekend May 17, 2003. Facilitated by the efforts of the Livingston Alumni Association, about 60 Livingston Alumni and their guests joined, for the first time ever, Rutgers Alumni, College of Engineering Alumni, and the Mason Gross School Alumni at various RAA Reunion Weekend venues. LAA ventured into RAA's Reunion Weekend to add our Alumni to the already established RAA tradition, economize on planning efforts as well as costs, and to explore the possibilities for future combined RAA & LAA Alumni Reunions.

This unique flagship cooperation between LAA and RAA was spearheaded by Past President William Bauer (LC '86) and, former 2nd Vice President Robert Uhrik (LC '78). Both Bob and Bill felt it was time to try something new and believed that there was no reason to duplicate efforts of the already established RAA reunion weekend. Also, it was felt that "we all went to the same University and probably had classes with Alumni from many of the other individual Colleges". The arrangements, coordination, announcements, and registration were handled by Bob Uhrik fo LC '78 and Bill Bauer handled all of the other class reunions. RAA President Robert Frisch welcomed the new liaison and hoped it might catch on for the possibility for an all College, University-wide Alumni Weekend in the future.

Representatives of the Livingston Alumni Council were chosen to attend each Class Reunion event to critique it and provide feedback to the LAA. LAA Council reps reported that all the events were well received by attending Livingston Alumni and all had a great time. Attendees particularly appreciated the coffee mugs and Polo Shirts handed out to all participants, both beautifully inscribed with the new LAA logo. Some Livingston Alumni also participated in the Rutgers traditional events such as the 19th Century Chapel Service and marched in the Alumni Parade led by our oldest Alumnus, Walter Seward age 105 - Class of 1917. A special highlight was the appearance of Rutgers President McCormick, who stopped in briefly at every class event. President McCormick greeted alumni, spoke for a few moments about current issues at the university and his vision for Rutgers, and finally answered alumni questions. Most questions were about the merger of Universities and concerns over the State Budget and funding to Rutgers.

Here are some brief notes about each Reunion event:

The Class of '73 was well represented by Livingston Alumni who made up nearly half of the attendees at a dinner at the Alumni Faculty Club. LAA Past President Jeffrey Isaacs (LC '84) attended as LAA rep and current Livingston Assistant Dean of Housing, LeRoy Haines (LC '73) also attended. A Grand Ol Time with plenty of reminiscing about the Old "Rock" memories was had by all.

The Class of '78, had the unique pleasure of dinner in the new Agriculture Museum on College Farm Road. Robert Uhrik ('78) Past 2nd VP LAA attended as LAA rep and heard much praise about the unique opportunity to join in with Rutgers Alumni! A common realization was that all alumni, no matter what college they were affiliated with, shared a common time period not only in their own lives but also with the entire University in general. Cynthia Williams of Mitchelville, MD was chosen as Class Agent.

The Class of '83 BBQ took place out on the Athletic fields near the Werblin Center. LAA 1st VP Marc Weller (LC '85) attended the fun filled event.

The Classes of '88 & '98 had a combined picnic at Diener Park. LAA Past Treasurer Michelle Ostowski (LC '88) mingled with the Class of '88 while Past President Bill Bauer (LC '86) mixed and welcomed the Class of '98. Good food, good weather, and a good turnout made for a thoroughly enjoyable picnic in the park.

The Class of '93 Dinner was held at the Hyatt Regency in New Brunswick. Current LAA President Yash V. Dalal (LC '92) and LAA Board member Alexs Birdsall-Griffiths (LC '92) attended as LAA reps and reported it was a wonderful opportunity to get reacquainted with old friends and classmates. Harry Knabe will continue as Class of '93 President with Tricia Roddy Vice President, Donna Battle Secretary, and Brian Villano, Treasurer.

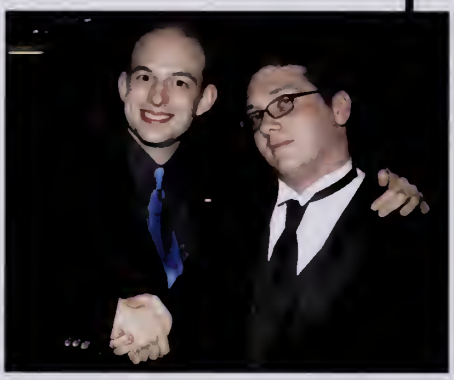
Livingston Theatre Company 5th Year Gala

On May 5th, members of the Livingston Alumni Association were thrilled to be part of the 5th anniversary celebration of The Livingston Theatre Company. Held at the Hale Center, the formal evening included live performances from every single show, a video and photo montage highlighting the many plays and musicals the group has staged and anecdotes, memories, and stories from past participants. The evening was a chance for the 200 people in attendance to reflect on the strong positive impact the theatrical productions staged each year have on our campus.



Founding Producer, Jason Goldstein (LC '02) and current Artistic Director, Ivan Rushfield (LC '04) at The LTC Gala.

Theatre Night '03

The LAA is excited about holding its annual theater night at The Livingston Theatre Company (our campus' own theater troupe) production of "KISS ME KATE" on Saturday, November 22, 2003 at 8pm in The Livingston Student Center. We invite you to join us before the show for a special alumni wine and cheese reception beginning at 6:30pm. "KISS ME KATE" is Cole Porter's backstage musical treatment of Shakespeare's Taming of the Shrew. When divorced stars Lilli Vanessi and Fred Graham are cast as the two romantic leads in the Bard's play, problems are bound to arise. A tribute to both the theater and the notion of love, "KISS ME KATE" is a tour-de-force of Porter's legendary style, featuring wonderful songs such as "Too Darn Hot," "Wunderbar," "Another Op'nin Another Show" and, of course, "Brush Up Your Shakespeare." The student-run organization, now in its sixth season, has grown tremendously since their inception in 1998, producing four large musical productions a year in The Livingston Student Center. We are happy to continually support this artistic effort on campus. Tickets for the show and reception are $5 per person. The LAA encourages bringing friends and family to the show. To order tickets, please send a request to Jason Goldstein c/o The Livingston Student Center, 84 Joyce Kilmer Ave., Piscataway, NJ 08854, with the number of tickets and your check (made payable to The Livingston Theatre Company) or cash payment by October 31, 2003.

Expand The LSC

The Livingston Student Center (LSC) has been an integral part of many students' collegiate lives. Many students have had their lives enriched by programs put on in the LSC or have met new friends while lousing around in the Commuter Lounge inside the LSC. Rutgers has changed and grown over time, but the capacity and limitations of the LSC have remained the same.

Both the Livingston College Governing Association and the Livingston Alumni Association have passed resolutions in support of an expansion of the Livingston Student Center. This expansion would address current and future problems being faced by the administration of the LSC and Livingston College students. Through the efforts of the people in these organizations, alumni are now able to request the money they donate be used for the expansion of the Livingston Student Center. The class of 2002's class gift allowed for the initial money to be allocated to this fund.

When the expansion is complete it will be a milestone event for Livingston College and the Rutgers community as a whole. Each of us has at times been frustrated by the amount of time needed to accomplish this goal, but we can feel excited today knowing that the expansion effort has grown and become even more successful.

From The Past President

William S. Bauer, Jr., LC '86 GSNB '89

Greetings to all of our members. At the last meeting of the Livingston Alumni Association, I was elected to a three-year term as one of the two Livingston Alumni Association representatives to the Rutgers University Alumni Federation (RUAF). Michele Ostrowski is our other representative to the RUAF.

Having served two years as President of the Livingston Alumni Association, I thought it was the perfect time to run for an elected position representing our alumni within the Rutgers University Alumni Federation. The RUAF is comprised of representatives from each alumni association in the university.

Looking back on my term as President of the LAA, I can confidently say that it was a good two years. Working with the Executive Council, your alumni association produced solid newsletters, coordinated events, and gained an unprecedented distinction within the University. The LAA is well respected because of its quality programs and its involvement in alumni relations activities.

I would like to thank several special people for making my two years as President a success. First I would like to thank Robert Uhrik. Bob has been a member of the Livingston Alumni Association since his graduation in 1978. This past year, he stepped up to the plate and served as LC '78 Class President and organized LC '78 reunion activities. I thank Bob for all of his diligent work.

I would like to thank Michele Ostrowski for setting up the wonderful Theater Night program. She did this while handling all of the unpleasant tasks associated with keeping the LAA bills paid and income tax forms in order. Michele has always been a source of optimism and new ideas. I thank Michele for helping to make the LAA successful.

Mark Weller has always been a faithful and reliable member of the Association. In organizing the Homecoming table, greeting alumni at class reunion events, or registering new graduates with the Association, Mark was always there and involved. Most recently, Mark was elected Secretary of the LAA. Mark has been a member of the Livingston Alumni Association for many years and his service to the LAA should be well recognized by the association membership.

Campus Brief

New Organizational Leadership Minor

Livingston College's offers a minor in Organizational Leadership which is designed to facilitate students' transition from college into the work place by unifying the theoretical and the practical elements of organizational dynamics. The minor focuses on both theoretical and extracurricular experiences. Theory courses focus on formulating an ethically responsible vision that promotes organizational excellence; understanding change: how it occurs, when it is needed, and how it affects a group; and persuading individuals and groups to work toward a common goal. In order to ensure the coherence of the program, a series of extra-curricular programs supplement the theoretical courses.

Livingston College

Jason Goldstein LC'2002 is a recent graduate and has made a significant mark upon the LAA during this past year. His enthusiasm and involvement in planning events made our programs even more successful. Jason, along with Michele Ostrowski, was responsible for the LAA Theater Night program and the reception before the Livingston Theater Company's production of the "The Will Rogers Follies." Jason also organized the LAA presence at Livingston Theater Company's 5th Anniversary event. I am sure he will continue to do a fine job as the current Vice President of the Livingston Alumni Association. I thank Jason for his service during this past year.

I would like to thank Dean Paul Herman. He is our liaison from Livingston College and produced the alumni newsletter for many years. He attended our LAA meetings and gave the Executive Council the latest news from the Dean's office.

Bob Marguccio, former Director of Alumni Relations, served as our liaison from the Department of Alumni Relations. Bob conveyed the issues from the Alumni Relations Office to the LAA. Bob has retired and I wish him happiness during this new phase of his life.

Thank you for your continued support of the Livingston Alumni Association. Your support is what makes the Livingston Alumni Association a success. I hope to serve you well in the RUAF.
